

CLUBSWAN MAGAZINE

SPRING 2005

'The Spirit of Swan'

NAUTOR'S[®]
SWAN
CLUBSWAN

Stuart Robinson of Stay Calm is awarded the Transatlantic Challenge trophy by UK Swan agent Pat Lilley

Lord Greenway presents the Mediterranean Challenge trophy to Stephen James of Jacobite

Cecilia and Alessio Tessieri, owners of chocolatier Amedei, display their wares

Winner of the Guernsey Swan Rendez-vous Andrew Armstrong of El Tiburon receives his prize from John Elliot

Chocolate heaven at the House of Lords

Over 250 guests came to the ClubSwan Reception hosted by Lord Greenway at the House of Lords in London. Held during the London Boat Show in mid-January, the event offered a great chance for the Swan family to celebrate the New Year in style – and enjoy some fine Italian chocolates.

Leonardo Ferragamo thanked Lord Greenway for his hospitality and handed over to UK Swan agents Pat Lilley and John Irving to present three Swan Challenge Trophies. Stephen James from Jacobite accepted the Mediterranean Challenge Trophy, Stuart Robinson and Tony Pidgley of Stay Calm took the Transatlantic Challenge and, while owner Clayton Deutsch couldn't be there in person, Chippewa was recognised for her victory in the Northern European Challenge.

Andrew Armstrong of El Tiburon also received a prize for winning the Guernsey Swan Rendez-vous, which John Irving praised as one of the best events of 2004. Guests were also treated to some of the finest Italian chocolate, provided for the event by Amedei.

Trophies to be awarded in London

A week later, and it was time for the second ClubSwan Reception at the New York Yacht Club, hosted by Commodore George Hinman. Guests were treated to a spectacular video presentation of the Rolex Swan Cup, before Enrico Chieffi moved on to the prizegiving.

Dominick Porco received the Swan East American Challenge for Swan 45 Alliance's performance in the Newport Bermuda Race. Frank Savage was the winner of the Swan Caribbean Challenge with his Swan 56 Lolita.

Frank and Lolita Savage (swan 56 Lolita) are awarded the Swan Caribbean Challenge Trophy in New York

Dominick Porco (Alliance) wins the Swan East American Challenge (pictured with Enrico Chieffi and Steve Barker)